A state that encompasses every season, Colorado never disappoints. Just a short drive to the cities of Denver and Colorado Springs, Pueblo is nestled in the southern foothills of the Rocky Mountains. Whether you enjoy the outdoors or the big city, Pueblo is just a short distance to either.

If you love nature and great food, Pueblo has something for everyone. When you work up an appetite in the outdoors, you can fulfill your hunger at one of the many great local restaurants featuring Pueblo chiles or ethnic specialties like potica. Learn more about Pueblo at www.pueblo.us.

Our Outdoor Pursuits Program will introduce you to Colorado favorites like rock and ice climbing, biking, rafting, hiking, and, of course, snowboarding and skiing.

Stay active.

Welcome home.

We're committed to providing a positive living environment for all of our students. CSU-Pueblo has a total of 1,290 beds on campus. Crestone, Culebra, and Greenhorn halls feature computer labs, classrooms, meeting space, and social space, along with a bistro in Culebra Hall for a convenient dining venue.

- Housing applications are accepted once students are admitted to the University.
- Contracts and housing applications are available early in the spring semester at www.csupueblo.edu/housing, and assignments are made in mid-July.
- The priority deadline for housing applications is July 1.

Freshman Live-in Policy

Freshman and sophomore students who are single, under 21 years of age, with a home address outside of Pueblo County must live on campus two academic years (4 complete semesters). Credits taken concurrent with high school and/or credits attained through Advanced Placement (AP), CLEP, International Baccalaureate or similar programs do not apply towards living experience. Housing policies are subject to change.

University Village at Walking Stick Apartments

These spacious, two-story apartments offer an array of amenities and the convenience of living right in the heart of campus. They are another residential option for students, typically upperclassmen. Each student at University Village has an individual housing contract with payment options to fit his or her academic funding situation.

Visit www.csupueblo.edu/housing for more information.

CSU-Pueblo students receive nearly $50 million in aid annually.

Affordable for everyone

At CSU-Pueblo, we want you to know that there are resources to help you pay for your education. From federal and state aid, scholarships, institutional awards, and tuition discounts, you can afford college. The tuition discounts below do not need to be repaid and are offered based on where students live.

Colorado Residents: Resident tuition rates and the College Opportunity Fund stipend apply to eligible Colorado resident undergraduate students.

<https://cof.college-assist.org>

WUE Residents: We are proud to participate in the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE). If you reside in one of the WUE states, you will automatically receive the reduced tuition rate if you:

- Complete two years of high school in your home WUE state prior to graduation or
- Transfer from a two- or four-year institution in a WUE state

ThunderWolf Residents: Residents of select states automatically qualify for the ThunderWolf Rate, a reduced tuition rate.

As a Non-Colorado Resident, a ThunderWolf Resident, or a WUE Resident, you also are eligible to receive the Living-Learning Award of $2,000 per year as long as you live in University housing.

Scholarships

CSU-Pueblo offers new students who meet minimum academic requirements their choice of one of the scholarships below. No additional application is needed. All dollar amounts listed are full academic year (fall and spring semesters) awards, and full-time attendance is required. Students must apply for admission and submit all required documents (test scores, transcripts, etc.) prior to March 1 for priority consideration. Students who wish to submit new test scores or transcripts to change scholarship levels also must do so by March 1. The scholarships cannot be combined with other CSU-Pueblo academic scholarships, unless specified.

First-Year Freshmen

Students must meet the minimum requirement of two of the three academic criteria (cumulative weighted high school GPA, ACT or SAT composite, and weighted class rank) and must enroll in the fall semester immediately following their graduation. The scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years if the student stays enrolled and maintains a 3.0 GPA.

Scholarship	Award Amount		Requirements
	Per Year	GPA	ACT/SAT ¹ /SAT ²	Class Rank
Presidential	$8,000	4.0	30/1340/1400	Top 2 percent
Distinguished	$5,000	3.75	27/1220/1290	Top 5 percent
Promising	$2,500	3.5	25/1150/1220	Top 15 percent
Welcome to the Pack	$1,000	3.2	22/1030/1110	Top 20 percent

(1) Refers to tests taken prior to March 2016.

(2) Refers to tests taken March 2016 or later.

All New Students

$1,000 Commitment to Colorado Award Requirements: Colorado residents who complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 1 each year and receive a Pell Grant; 3.0 GPA required to renew; renewable for up to three years.

$1,000 First Generation Scholarship Requirements: First generation college students (neither parent has received a bachelor's degree), 3.0 high school or transfer GPA; 3.0 GPA required to renew; renewable for up to three years. The First Generation Scholarship may be combined with any other CSU-Pueblo scholarship.

Transfer Students

$2,000 Destination CSU-Pueblo Scholarship Requirements: Transfer students with an Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, or Associate of General Studies degree and a minimum 3.0 community/junior college cumulative GPA. Renewable for up to one additional year with minimum 3.0 CSU-Pueblo GPA. The scholarship is only available to non readmit students pursuing their first bachelor's degrees.

We also award many scholarships through the CSU-Pueblo Foundation. Students must be accepted for admission prior to applying. The priority deadline is March 1. More information may be found at www.csupueblo.edu/scholarships.

tuition and fees

Estimating your costs

2017 Undergraduate rates*

Colorado Resident tuition and fees (minus College Opportunity Fund)	$10,090
Total cost per year (tuition, fees, room and board, minus College Opportunity Fund)	$18,870

Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) tuition and fees	$17,407
Total cost per year (tuition, fees, room and board)	$24,187

ThunderWolf Rate tuition and fees	$17,407
Total cost per year (tuition, fees, room and board)	$24,187

Non-Colorado Resident tuition and fees	$25,547
Total cost per year (tuition, fees, room and board)	$32,327

Note: Tuition for undergraduate students in Business, Computer Information Systems, Engineering, and Nursing courses is $31.48 more per credit hour. Course and program fees may be applied to specific classes at time of registration. For more information about billing and tuition rates, visit www.csupueblo.edu/bfs.

Getting a college degree is an important investment in your future! The earning potential you'll have once you complete your degree makes getting your diploma well worth your time and money.

A recent Brookings Institute study found that our alums earn almost $10,000 more than predicted, giving CSU-Pueblo second place among Colorado four-year schools for value-added benefits of attendance.

*Costs listed above are based on 15 credit hours per semester (the average hours required per semester to graduate in 4 years) for two semesters; 12, 14, or 17 meals per week; and a double room (small) with a single bath in Crestone, Culebra, or Greenhorn halls. Full-time enrollment is 12 credit hours or more per semester, so costs vary. Costs listed for WUE, ThunderWolf, and non-resident rates include a $2,000 Living- Learning Award. All fees and charges are subject to change. Visit www.csupueblo.edu/housing for more meal plan and housing options.

Academic support

From your first day of classes through graduation, you will have access to a variety of support programs to help ensure your success in the classroom and beyond:

- Knowledgeable advisors to guide you through your degree plan
- Free tutoring in math, science, technology, engineering, business, and general education courses
- The Writing Room, which provides free assistance through individualized instruction to writers at all levels and in all disciplines
- Library research support
- Career exploration and preparation through the Career Center

These are just some of the many support programs available to you at CSU-Pueblo. When you need assistance, you can be sure there is someone here to help.

Honors Program and President's Leadership Program

CSU-Pueblo welcomes high-achieving students to continue to stimulate their engagement and development through the Honors Program and President's Leadership Program (PLP). The Honors Program allows students interaction with faculty in thought-provoking seminars and intensive, guided research, along with special opportunities for experiential and service-learning projects. PLP also offers opportunities for experiential and service learning, with a focus on developing multi-culturally competent, transformational leaders. Students may receive scholarships from both programs if they have not already qualified for and selected an automatic merit scholarship. See www.csupueblo.edu/honors or www.csupueblo.edu/plp for more information.

Make the move to CSU-Pueblo.

If you've already earned credit toward a degree, you may apply those credits to our undergraduate degree programs. After an evaluation of your transfer credits, we'll do everything we can to allow you to use those credits toward your CSU-Pueblo degree.

Transferring from a two-year college

Our transfer counselors and course-by-course equivalencies make the transfer process as seamless as possible. We've also developed articulation agreements with many two-year colleges. You may transfer up to 60 credit hours for courses with a C- or better that correspond to a CSU-Pueblo program of study.

The Destination CSU-Pueblo scholarship provides up to four semesters of scholarship dollars to help ease your financial commitment. The scholarship is $2,000 per year, renewable for up to one additional year by earning a 3.0 cumulative GPA at CSU-Pueblo. Additional information and scholarship requirements can be found in the Scholarship section of this guide, page 13.

Transferring from a four-year college

If you're coming from a four-year institution, we'll work with you to maximize your transferable credit hours. You may apply up to 90 transferable credit hours from regionally accredited colleges and universities as long as you have earned a grade of C- or better and the courses correspond to a CSU-Pueblo program of study. At least 30 of your remaining semester hours must be completed in residence to earn your degree at CSU-Pueblo. To graduate with scholastic honors at graduation (baccalaureate degree only - summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude), a minimum of 60 semester credits must be earned at CSU-Pueblo.

Take the next step.

Are you ready to apply for admission and complete your degree? After you've been accepted, we'll complete an Evaluation of Transfer Credit. This will show you which of the credits earned at other institutions will transfer to your academic record at CSU-Pueblo, either as general transfer credit or as articulated courses equivalent to courses required for a specific major. Your faculty advisor can help you determine which courses apply to the requirements for your major. If you would like to see how your courses will transfer before you are admitted, visit www.transferology.com/school/colostate-pueblo.
