Please complete this form for each undergraduate, minor, certificate, and graduate program (e.g., B.A., B.S., M.S.) in your department. Please copy any addenda (e.g., rubrics) and paste them in this document, and submit it to the dean of your college/school as per the deadline established. The dean will forward it to me as an email attachment before June 1, 2017. You’ll also find the form at the assessment website at <http://www.colostate-pueblo.edu/Assessment/ResultsAndReports/Pages/default.aspx>.

Please describe the 2016-2017 assessment activities for the program in Part I. Use Column H to describe improvements planned for 2017-2018 based on the assessment process. In Part II, please describe activities engaged in during 2016-2017 designed to close-the-loop (improve the program) based on assessment activities and the information gathered in 2015-2016. Thank you.

I. Program student learning outcomes (SLOs) assessed in this cycle, processes, results, and recommendations.

A. Which of the program SLOs were assessed during this cycle? Please include the outcome(s) verbatim from the assessment plan.	B. When was this SLO last assessed? Please indicate the semester and year.	C. What method was used for assessing the SLO? Please include a copy of any rubrics used in the assessment process.	D. Who was assessed? Please fully describe the student group(s) and the number of students or artifacts involved.	E. What is the expected achievement level and how many or what proportion of students should be at it?	F. What were the results of the assessment?	G. What were the department’s conclusions about student performance?	H. What changes/improvements to the program are planned based on this assessment?

3. Applies techniques of Critical Theory.	Summer 2017	Evaluation of incoming majors in ENG 201 and graduating seniors in ENG 493 (final papers were used for assessment).	Spring 18 ENG 201 students (19 students). Spring 2018 ENG 493 students (11 students).	We expect 75% of the ENG 201 students to score a 2 or higher on a 4 point scale. We expect 75% of the ENG 493 students to score 2.5 or higher.	90% of the ENG 201 students scored 2 or higher. 91% of the ENG 493 students scored 2.5 or higher.	The ENG 201 and ENG 493 students outperformed our expectations on this SLO.	This assessment does not indicate a need for changes to the program at this time.
4. Analyzes literature and synthesizes ideas with clarity and accuracy.	Summer 2017	Evaluation of incoming majors in ENG 201 and graduating seniors in ENG 493 (final papers were used for assessment).	Spring 18 ENG 201 students (19 students). Spring 2018 ENG 493 students (11 students).	We expect 80% of the ENG 201 students to score a 2 or higher on a 4 point scale. We expect 80% of the ENG 493 students to score 2.5 or higher.	90% of the ENG 201 students scored 2 or higher. 91% of the ENG 493 students scored 2.5 or higher.	The ENG 201 and ENG 493 students outperformed our expectations on this SLO.	This assessment does not indicate a need for changes to the program at this time.

Comments:

High scores for ENG 201 and 493 students suggest that the English Program faculty should revisit the possibility of raising our expectations, which we raised from 75% to 80%. This was also the recommendation we received following the evaluation of last year’s English Program Assessment Report. We will discuss this in our first meeting of the fall semester if we should increase expectations further.

II. Follow-up (closing the loop) on results and activities from previous assessment cycles. In this section, please describe actions taken during this cycle that were based on, or implemented to address, the results of assessment from previous cycles.

A. What SLO(s) did you address? Please include the outcome(s) verbatim from the assessment plan.	B. When was this SLO last assessed? Please indicate the semester and year.	C. What were the recommendations for change from the previous assessment?	D. Were the recommendations for change acted upon? If not, why?	E. What were the results of the changes? If the changes were not effective, what are the next steps or the new recommendations?
		In semesters when multiple sections of ENG 201 are offered, have a norming session for all ENG 201 instructors to ensure consistent ratings, or have instructors use the rubric to rate the final essays in the other instructor’s section.	We did not offer multiple sections of ENG 201 in the fall or spring.	In the future, if we offer multiple sections of ENG 201 in one semester, we will try this.
		Since none of the ENG 201 and 493 evaluators use the 0 category, eliminate this ranking on the assessment rubric.	Yes.	No discernable change.

		To improve student performance on all SLOs, schedule ranked faculty as well as lecturers to teach ENG 201.	Yes, ranked faculty taught ENG 201 in the fall and spring.
		To improve performance of students taking ENG 493 in the summer, avoid scheduling this course in a 4-week session.	Due to the transition to a new Department Chair, this arrangement was not made. ENG 493 was taught by a tenure-track professor in a four-week summer 2017 session with a small enrollment, which means the recommendations for improvement needs to reimplemented again.	Average scores of the students who took the senior seminar in the summer 2016 6-week session were higher than the students who took the course in the fall and almost as high as the students who took the course in the spring on both SLOs assessed in this assessment cycle, suggesting that we can continue to offer senior seminars in 6-week summer sessions for students who need it to graduate.

Comments:

To get the most objective assessments possible, each senior seminar essay was read by two readers and when their rankings differed, scores were averaged. Experienced lecturers performed the assessments to avoid potential bias on the part of ranked faculty, who take turns teaching the seminar.

Last year's report made indications that we need to continue focusing on preparing English graduates prepared for graduate school and career opportunities with the implementation of a one-credit course, Careers for English Majors, is now required for all English majors. Based on student evaluations of Careers for English majors, the course is a success. During the previous year's results of this year's Senior Questionnaire are extremely the two suggestions from the Senior Questionnaire merit faculty discussion:

1. "Provide hands-on examples of how to do library research."

2. “There needs to be some sort of ceremony to acknowledge high achieving students. Other department have this. Professors need to be more involved in student life.”

During the 2017-18 year, faculty ordered more texts and supplemental texts for the CSU-Pueblo library to support student research. Also, there were some efforts by faculty to support student life with Sigma Tau Delta, English Club, the SoCo Reading Series, faculty lectures, and other presentations for students and faculty.
