Preamble

We, the students of Colorado State University Pueblo (CSU-P), recognize that active and judicious participation in all aspects of this institution is beneficial to fully exercise our rights and liberties as college students. We hereby establish a student government that will represent the rights and best interests of our collegiate community, advocating for the betterment and growth of our college students. With the support of the CSU-P administration and faculty/staff, Associated Student Government (ASG) will quickly address student concerns and needs, as well as encourage and support new ideas. ASG will actively ensure that we, the student body of CSU-P, are justly and proactively recognized and represented with fairness and equity in all aspects of the university setting.

Section 1: Definition of Association

1. All currently enrolled mandatory fee-paying students of CSU Pueblo shall be known as the Association.

Student Bill of Rights

A. Dissenting Opinions

The right to take reasoned exceptions to views offered as part of academic curriculum or non-academic functions without fear of repercussion, to be graded solely on academic performance, and to be protected against prejudice or arbitrary evaluation.

B. Demonstration

The right to organize and participate in orderly, non-violent demonstrations on and off campus.

C. Use of Facilities

The right to use campus facilities for meetings and other activities subject to procedures and regulations.

D. Petitioning

The right to petition the proper authority for changes in faculty, administration, curriculum, and institutional policy, without fear of retribution.

E. Raising and Seeking Funds

The right, subject to reasonable regulation, of any recognized student organization to raise and seek monies on campus.

F. Information

The right to obtain truthful and full information, upon inquiry, on the reasons for any college policy affecting them, the adoption proceedings of said policy, and the options by which it may be changed.

G. Privacy of Records

The right to privacy of their academic, non-academic, disciplinary, and financial records with the right of personal examination of such records.

H. The Right to a Defense

The right to a fair judicial conduct process according to the Student Code of Conduct.

1. Discrimination

The right, as a student of CSU-Pueblo, to enjoy all these rights, all other rights, and all benefits as outlined by the institution, without regard to, but not limited to, race, gender, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, physical capability, political ideology, socio-economic status, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation or parental status.

Article I-Purpose

The purpose of Colorado State University-Pueblo Associated Student Government will be to represent the rights of the student body, promoting diversity within a positive inclusive campus environment, and to facilitate an environment of higher learning.

Article II - Organizational Structure and Overview

Section 1: Executive Branch

The Executive Branch functions as general management and oversight for ASG. It consists of the ASG President, ASG Vice President, ASO Appointed Directors, and Executive Assistant(s). The roles of Executive Branch members are further outlined in Article III. The Executive Branch does not have voting power.

Section 2: Legislative Branch

The Legislative Branch is the main voting body of ASG. It consists of ten (10) senators, two from each college, as well as four At-Large senators, who assess student needs, sponsor new legislation, and amend the Constitution and bylaws of the Policy Manual. The Legislative Branch is chaired by the ASG Vice President. The branch is outlined in greater detail in Article IV of the ASG Constitution. The Legislative Branch is the only branch that has voting power.

Section 3: Judicial Branch

The Judicial Branch functions to define the Constitution, as well as update the Constitution and Policy Manual by adding new legislation enacted by the Legislative Branch. The Judicial Branch works to solve disputes between members of ASG. It consists of five three members and is chaired by the Chief Justice.
