b. Election Code Policy Manual Update Discussion

1. Discussion points
 - a. Topic: G. Wilson: Length of campaign period, open for discussion.
 - b. King: There seemed to be a lot of issues with the topic.
 - i. Pro-temt Hulet returned 7:02
 - ii. Senator Olay: Excused at 7:03
 - c. Barnett: Only putting the campaign to a week.
 - d. Zarr: Social Media: campaigning up through date should be limited and private groups were considered an issue. As long as it's told then it shouldn't be an issue.

- i. Senator Olay re-entered at 7:05
- 2. Retzlaff: You can promote your own team but not say anything against the other team.
- 3. King: hard this to distinguish. Going to need to be really careful because it's a very grey area
- 4. Hulet: clarification should be key. Privacy may be deemed concerning.
- 5. G. Wilson: Non-professional or personal attacks should not be permitted to Hulet and Retzlaff's comments
- 6. Barnett: Is there a way the voting committee still has access to it? No opposition to posting group.
- 7. Zarr: it's private and there should be no regulation
 - a. Concern was pre-election campaigning.
- 8. King: of course people will be campaigning before the actual campaign.
- 9. Huerta: If people do their own private message, it can stay out.
- 10. Gallery: people using the private group for their own campaigning because it's through invite.
- 11. Zarr: "The commission can't see if I'm pulling friends aside because it's a different way of going about it."
 - a. Gallery: It is not staying private
 - b. Zarr: doesn't understand why it has to be private. It's with their own team so it shouldn't matter.
- 12. Topic: G. Wilson: Judicial branch going under the dean of students
- 13. Zarr: Should there be a certain amount of money you could spend on your campaign the more you're invested is your dedication.
 - a. B. Wilson: No limitation for campaigning.
 - b. Barnett: Agrees. It won't be a lot of money.
 - c. Hulet: Agrees. One more thing the commission has to watch. There has to be some freedoms.
 - d. Olay: Has an issue. Ruling can be bought
 - e. Barnett: No random person will be pulled to do it.
 - f. G. Wilson: Senator Olay offers a valid point.
 - g. Zarr: May be rewriting it over break. Senators; read it and give tips.
 - h. Topic: G. Wilson: Course Fee
 - i. Zarr: Student Fee Governing Board. Approached by deans for course fees. Policies are set and need to be approved. Program fees are non-campus specific and course specific fees. Timeline needs to be submitted to provost by January 1st.
