

Dear (Child's name),

Christmas will be here soon and it won't be long before I take off in my Magic Sleigh with all of my flying reindeer. We'll be flying all over the world with the stars to guide us just like the Three Wise Men who found their way to the manger by following the Star of Bethlehem - bringing their gifts for Baby Jesus.

All of the elves in my workshop are building toys, painting toys, and putting games and puzzles together of every kind for all the good little boys and girls on my list. Then there are the many elves who are wrapping up all of those toys and games for me to leave as gifts to all the good boys and girls. There are also elves who keep the reindeer fed with fresh hay and the elves brush the reindeer to keep them clean and ready for our Christmas Eve ride. The Head Reindeer Elf shines Rudolph's red nose every day, keeping it clean so it will light our way.

Mrs. Claus is always busy in the kitchen making hot chocolate and cookies for all of us. None of us would be so jolly if we didn't have her cookies to munch on while we work!

I'm looking forward to visiting your house on Christmas Eve. Until then, you mind your (parents or other person) and be good. Do your chores, and be nice to your family and friends. Don't forget to say Please and Thank You, share your toys and remember to put them away when you are done playing with them. Say your prayers at night and remember the Baby Jesus who was born on Christmas day.

I must get back to the workshop to make sure that everything is getting done for Christmas Eve. Don't forget to leave some milk and cookies for me! Ho! Ho! Ho! I work so hard on Christmas Eve that I'm always hungry! Please leave some carrots for my reindeer - they work hard too!

Love,

Santa
