

The Image of the Hero III

Table of Contents

Proceedings of the 2014 Conference of the Society for the Interdisciplinary Study of Social Imagery

Society	1
Ernesto “Che” Guevara as a Hero for Social and Political Change Victor Manuel Durán, University of South Carolina - Aiken	3
The Hero of Unionized Labor: Joe Worker and the Story of Labor, 1946 Elena Hristova, University of Minnesota	10
The Lion of Panjshir: Ahmad Shah Massoud, the Folk-Hero and “Saint” of Modern Afghanistan Jacob L. Thomas, Idaho State University	18
Edward Snowden—Everyone’s Hero: Well, Maybe Not So Much Dale Edwards, University of Northern Colorado Lin Allen, University of Northern Colorado	26
What If Parson Weems Is My Hero? Engaging American History Students in a Multi-Cultural Classroom Caleb Kriesberg, Montgomery College - Silver Spring University of Maryland - College Park	31
Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold: Antiheroes for Outcasts Chelsea Daggett, University of Colorado - Boulder	38
Whatever Happened to Hester Prynne? The Image of the Adulteress in Colonial America and the Reproductive Consequences Kathleen M. Heath, Indiana State University John M. McCullough, University of Utah	47
Film, Television, Comics	54
The Ambiguity of Heroism and Villainy as Explored in Bill Willingham’s Fables Grace Tatigian, Memorial University of Newfoundland	55
The Image of a Team Hero as Seen in Ender’s Game and The Avengers Heidi L. Muller, University of Northern Colorado	59

Heroine Denied: Female Leads Turn to “Hero” to Phase out “Heroine”	67
Justina Violette, Wichita State University
Robin Hood and Zorro: The Conjoined Twins of Hollywood	76
Marybeth E. Cieplinski, Kent State University, NEOMFA Program
The Filmic Homme Fatal as a 20th-Century Cultural Barometer: From 1944’s Bluebeard to 2004’s Neo-Noir Phantom of the Opera	81
Hugh J. Ingrasci, DePaul University
Zombies and the Future of Postmodernism	86
Allison Ching, University of Northern Colorado
Heather Kimiecik, University of Northern Colorado
Sherlock Holmes: First Superhero?	96
Conor B. Hilton, Brigham Young University
The Silent Heroine in Syndicated Comics: (Re)Search after 30 Years	100
Thomas G. Endres, University of Northern Colorado
Should Batman Kill the Joker? An Examination of Superhero Ethics	110
Mikey Cunningham, University of Colorado - Colorado Springs
The Dark Knight: Superhero as Supervillain as Supernothing	117
Trevor Fuller, Wichita State University
Deleting the Hero: A Fantasy Theme Analysis of Little Red Riding Hood in Once Upon a Time	125
Elizabeth Carpenter, University of Northern Colorado
Culture	130
Plastic Heroes: Hypercommercialism and the Rise of A Real American Hero	131
J. Richard Stevens, University of Colorado - Boulder
The Magic of Maurice Sendak: Childhood Fears and the Heroes of Sendak’s Trilogy	139
Michael D. Reed, University of Texas - Pan American
The Hero and the State: Thomas Carlyle vs. Marcel Gauchet	144
Andreas Michel, Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology
The Heroism of Mere Survival: Old Heroes	149
Martha Kennedy, San Diego State University
A Memoir of Our Disorder: The Earl of Dunraven’s Divide in the Yellowstone	157

Tamara M. Teale, Independent Scholar
A Conquering Hero as Anti-Hero? Fran Meuser, Oakland University	164
The Changing Imagery of Public Heroic Statues: From Statesman to Athlete Mark Hutter, Rowan University	168
The Dog as God: A Jungian Analysis Exploring Dogs as Symbols for Archetypal Transference in the Video for Dan Deacon's Song "Woof Woof" Jake Russell, Wichita State University	174
Individuality and Social Theory in Carlyle's On Heroes Carl Pletsch, University of Colorado - Denver	182
Heroic Efforts toward Nonsexist Language Reform in Japan Naoko Takemaru, University of Nevada - Las Vegas	194
Heroism in the Spiritual Exercises John Roselle III, SJ, Loyola University Chicago	202
Literature	205
The Glorious (and Not-So-Glorious) Deaths in Gilgamesh and The Odyssey Emeline Brown, Southern Utah University	206
A Comparison of Anti-heroism and Death in Lu Xun's "The Real Story of Ah-Q" and Stephen Crane's The Red Badge of Courage Angkun Qi, Nanchang Hangkong University	210
Revisiting the Revisited War: Jean Giraudoux's Heroes in La Guerre de Troie n'aura pas lieu Richard W. Lemp, United States Air Force Academy	218
Albert Camus and Heroic Indifference Sergio Villani, York University	223
Mischievous Mentors and Marvelous Males: Oscar Wilde, Dorian Gray, and Manipulating the Aristotelian Aesthetic Kellee Rassau, Colorado State University - Pueblo	226
Shrewdness, Tolerance, and Wisdom: Heroic Enlightenment in G. E. Lessing's Nathan der Weise Ralph W. Buechler, University of Nevada - Las Vegas	233

“Much Madness Is Divinest Sense”: Christianity, Holden Caulfield, and The Catcher in the Rye Jan Whitt, University of Colorado - Boulder	236
The Names of Alonso Quijano and Don Quixote: Imagining and Building a Hero Alicia Herraiz, University of Nebraska - Lincoln	241
Black Boys and Native Sons: The Politics of Richard Wright’s Outsider Heroes Frederick D. Watson, Metropolitan State University	246
Visions of the Maternal Heroine: Esperanza as La Virgen de Guadalupe in Sandra Cisneros’s The House on Mango Street Teresa Hernández-Reed, University of Texas - Pan American	252
“Third World Girl” as Superhero in Junot Díaz’s The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Durthy A. Washington, United States Air Force Academy	256
Poetry in the Heroic Tradition: Rudolfo Anaya’s Elegy on the Death of César Chávez Joy Landeira, University of Northern Colorado	262
Relationship of Power between Prostitute and Procurer, Pimp and Trafficker: The Ultimate Heroine and the Ultimate Villain in Mauro Zúniga Araúz’s Novel “Espejo de miserias” Sara Escobar-Wiercinski, Wayne State University	267
A Monstrosity of Rhetorical Eloquence: Sympathy through the Unsympathetic and the Humanity of Words in Frankenstein Melissa C. Greenberg, Colorado State University - Pueblo	275