THE IMAGE OF THE REBEL
in Literature, Media, and Society

March 12-14, 2015
Antlers Hilton Hotel
Colorado Springs, Colorado

January 15, 2015

Dear Conference Participant:

Please use the index with the Preliminary Program to find your presentation time at the upcoming conference, The Image of the Rebel. Also if you have volunteered to moderate a session, please check to see if (and when) you have been assigned. As more participants volunteer, moderators will be added to the sessions that currently have none. Those new moderators will be notified of their sessions as they are assigned. If there is a problem with your presentation time or your moderating time, please let us know.

This program will also be posted on the SISSI webpage <http://chass.colostate-pueblo.edu/sissi/>. There will inevitably be some changes to this program. When you check in at the conference, you will receive the final Conference Program. Please check again for your presentation and moderating times. No times will be changed, however, without prior consultation and approval.

Including your paper in the Proceedings is optional. If you wish it to be included, it should be submitted, properly formatted, by e-mail or disk. (A hard copy is not required but is often helpful when there are problems with the electronic copy.) You may submit it at the conference or send it later (e-mail or mail) but no later than June 1, 2015. E-mail to rebel@colostate-pueblo.edu (or will.wright@colostate-pueblo.edu) or mail it to Will Wright, Sociology, Colorado State University - Pueblo, Pueblo CO 81001-4901.

Each day of the conference will include four 90-minute session times, beginning at 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 2:15 p.m., and 4:00 p.m. There will be a Keynote Address on Friday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Learning Center, which is next to the meeting rooms.

Please try to keep your presentation at the conference within a 15-17 minute time frame. This will assure each presenter enough time and also time for discussion. If you have been assigned as a moderator, you should introduce speakers and monitor presentations for length. Please monitor effectively, so all speakers will have an equal amount of time and some time will be left for discussion. In general, the last 10-12 minutes should be for discussion. As a moderator, you may or may not preside over the discussion, but the role of monitor does not imply prior reading or commentary on the papers. If you are assigned as a moderator after the distribution of the Preliminary Program, you will be contacted directly.

Coffee, tea, and pastries will be served (outside the meeting rooms) before the morning sessions (8:30 - 9:00 a.m.) and during the morning break (10:30 - 11:00 a.m.). You are on your own for lunches and dinners. There are two restaurants in the hotel and many others within walking distance.

Audio-visual equipment will be available for participants, including laptops, video projectors, screens and speakers. If your presentation requires any of these, please let us know now or when you arrive. If your presentation requires other equipment (slide projector, overhead, VCR, etc.), let us know as soon as possible. E-mail rebel@colostate-pueblo.edu (or will.wright@colostate-pueblo.edu), fax 719-549-2705, or call Will Wright at 719-549-2538. Please let us know if you have any other concerns.

You may register, pay the Proceedings fee, obtain a receipt, pick up the formatting instructions, and pick up your program at the registration desk. We can only accept credit cards for the registration fee and Proceedings fee in advance. We cannot accept them at the conference itself. Please ask us, or any of the student assistants, for any help or information you may need. The registration desk will be open Wednesday evening, March 11, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m., in the lobby of the Antlers, and then from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., March 12-14, by the meeting rooms.

Please make room reservations as soon as possible directly with the Antlers Hotel - 866-299-4602 (toll free) or 719-955-5600. The conference rate is only guaranteed through February 16 and the hotel may fill up. If you would like to share a room with a conference participant in order to reduce costs, let us know and we will arrange connections.

There is no hotel shuttle service from the Colorado Springs Airport to the hotel. Taxicabs are always available at the airport. You may want to ask others to share a cab to the Antlers, since many of the people looking for cabs will be participants at the conference. You may also want to tell the bell captain at the hotel when you plan to leave in order to coordinate groups to share a cab to the airport.

We look forward to a stimulating conference.
