

Colorado State University – Pueblo
 Experiential Education Course “Evaluation Checklist”

Course Name: _____

	YES	NO
Course includes a minimum of 10 hours of experiential education per course credit hour
Students are taught the definition, principles, and purpose of the Experiential Learning Cycle
Course objectives and learning outcomes are tied to direct experiences
Students are engaged in structured reflection
Course incorporates activities aligned with experiential education principles
Course includes an assessment of student learning and the effectiveness of the experience
Students conceptualize course material and engage theory with practice through posing questions, solving problems, and constructing meaning
Students are encouraged to engage in experimentation
Students are required to demonstrate evidence of knowledge constructed through experiential learning (i.e. portfolios, presentations, projects, performances, displays, etc.)		