

2018 CSU-Pueblo Student Symposium

Call for Abstracts

The sixth annual Student Symposium: A Celebration of Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity invites students and recent alumni from Colorado State University-Pueblo to present their original research, scholarly, and creative works to the university and public. The Symposium's mission is to serve as a forum for dissemination and discussion of scholarly and creative ideas and to foster interaction among students, faculty, and the local community.

WHEN

- Friday, April 6, 2018.

WHERE

- CSU-Pueblo Campus.

DEADLINE

- The deadline for submission is 12 pm on Monday, March 5, 2018.
- Presenters will be notified of the committee's decision by March 19, 2018.

PRESENTATION TYPES

- ORAL: A 15-minute oral presentation with 5 minutes Q&A. Oral presentations are organized into 1-hour time blocks.
- POSTER: Poster sessions are organized into 2 to 4 hour time blocks and must be staffed by at least one researcher for the entire session.
- OTHER: Art, music, and other creative works. Please provide details on the nature of your presentation and any space or equipment required.

Detailed instructions on participation will be emailed with the committee's decision on each application. Students are expected to attend the entire symposium.
