*Courses with the ENG prefix are offered on a rotating basis. One course will be offered each fall and spring until all three are taught and then the cycle will start again. For example, ENG 553 is offered in Fall 2017, ENG 523 will be offered in Spring 2018, and ENG 560 in Fall 2018. ENG 553 would then begin the cycle again in Spring 2019. Summer offerings will only happen as needed and as instructors are available.

ALL Courses REQUIRE  $\geq$  "C" Grade

ANY SUBSTITUTIONS MUST BE APPROVED BY THE TEP'S ASSOCIATE DEAN

Connection to the Master of Education (M.Ed.) Program (38 credit hours):

All courses taken at the graduate level are potentially eligible for credit toward the M.Ed. program. Which courses count is dependent on the emphasis area chosen for the M.Ed. Please contact the Associate Dean of Education if you have questions about the M.Ed. program and how it connects to the Culturally & Linguistically Diverse Education added endorsement.

All of the courses listed above (24 credit hours) would count toward the M.Ed. in Linguistically Diverse Education.
